Victoria's Tradition

COLLECTION

At Millcraft we've found that traditions are powerful. There are family traditions that set the stage for healthy relationships, traditions that bring security and predictability to the order of our lives, and traditions that reach across time to connect us with yesterday and tomorrow. Traditions make a difference. In our community, traditions are honored and revered, and have been for years. Simplicity and value are expected and inherent in those around us. Everyone has traditions. Some are good, very good. Everytime we experience them we are inspired, inspired to have and to do more good.

Victoria's Tradition has been and continues to be a classic. Extra-wide, double-bevel, raised panel styling with cathedral arches display a wealth of beauty and the precision of our craftsmanship. Dental molding coupled with fluted columns on the poster bed are final touches that make Victoria's Tradition complete.
